

Mark Your Calendars

COMMUNITY ENGAGED LEARNING SERIES #2: HOW TO GET STARTED AND TO KEEP YOU GOING?

In this workshop attendees will learn about community-engaged learning pedagogies that incorporate rigorous academic theory and experiential learning to address community identified public concerns, interest, and issues. By the end of the session, faculty should understand the core principles of how to effectively and ethically incorporate community-engaged learning within their courses.

Presented by:

The Brown Center for Faculty Innovation and Excellence

Facilitator:

Dr. Pamela Cappas-Toro

Brown Faculty Fellow For Community Engagement

February 11th | 12-1:00 PM | Elizabeth 103

This panel is part of the center's endeavor to discuss community-engaged learning, research, and service.

Sign Up

