RE: Travel Letter for Student Athletes

DATE: Spring 2016

Please print and sign your name below, indicating that _____ has provided you with athletic travel information. The student named above represents Stetson University as a member of a varsity/junior varsity team.

The Stetson University athletics department emphasizes the importance of class attendance; therefore, student athletes are not permitted to miss class. All student athletes are expected to attend class unless they have an illness or injury documented with sports medicine that precludes class attendance or are participating (or traveling to participate) in an authorized university athletic event.

This information is provided to you so that you are aware of when the student athlete will miss your class(es) due to participation in a University sponsored athletic event. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Pegjohngy "PJ" Moses, Associate Athletics Director of Student Services, Academics and Compliance at 386-822-8141 or email me at pmoses@stetson.edu.

STETSON UNIVERSITY

Dear Faculty Member,

The student that is delivering this letter to you is a member of a varsity athletics team at Stetson University. The student athlete delivering this letter is providing you with a schedule of his or her scheduled athletic events. The student athlete is responsible for highlighting each contest below which conflicts with his or her class schedule and is also responsible for emailing and speaking with you in person before missing your course for an athletic event. In addition, please note that each athletic schedule is reviewed by our Faculty Athletics Representative prior to the beginning of each season to ensure missed classes are minimized.
